Biotech Pharma Centre for Integrated Learning (BPCIL)
New Delhi, Bharat | April 20, 2026

The Biotech Pharma Centre for Integrated Learning (BPCIL) successfully conducted the Personal Interview (PI) round for the National Scholarship Examination (NSE)-2025 Phase II on March 30, 2026 at Ambekeshwar Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Chandrika Devi Road, BKT, Lucknow. The online examination had earlier been conducted on November 16, 2025, and the results were declared on December 31, 2025.
The Personal Interview and Scholar Felicitation Ceremony was organized under the guidance of Chairman Dr. R. P. Pandey and Director Prof. Dr. Dharamveer, with the gracious presence of distinguished academicians and industry experts.

Chief Guest Address
Chief Guest Shri Anshul Vidyarthi (Prant Sangathan Mantri, ABVP – Awadh Prant) appreciated the initiative and stated: "Such scholarship examinations serve as a strong medium for identifying meritorious and talented students and nurturing their intellectual potential. Inspiring youth with national values, discipline, and a spirit of nation-building, particularly in important fields like pharmacy and life sciences, is the need of the hour. Such initiatives not only accelerate the creation of a knowledge-driven society but also contribute significantly towards realizing the vision of a self-reliant, strong, and research-oriented India."

Guests of Honour Remarks
Dr. R. K. Dixit, Professor & Head, Department of Pharmacology & Therapeutics, King George's Medical University, Lucknow, emphasized: "A written examination followed by personal interviews provides a fair and practical way to assess students from multiple perspectives. While the written test evaluates academic understanding, the interview helps in assessing communication skills, confidence, and overall aptitude. This structured approach ensures that truly deserving candidates are identified, recognized, and encouraged to pursue excellence in their respective fields."
Dr. Jitendra Kumar, Prant Shodh Adhyaksh, Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad, Awadh Prant, added: "This platform encourages research orientation among students and motivates them to pursue excellence in scientific domains."

Special Guests Observations
Prof. Dr. Bharat Mishra, Director, Department of Pharmacy, Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National Rehabilitation University, Lucknow highlighted the academic rigor of the selection process and encouraged students to focus on research-based learning.
Prof. Dr. Savita Upadhyay, Director, TS Mishra College of Pharmacy, TS Mishra University, Lucknow praised the multidisciplinary participation and the transparency of evaluation.
Dr. Arun Kumar, Department of Pharmacy, Integral University, Lucknow appreciated the initiative for bridging academia and professional expectations.
Dr. Koshy M. Kymonil, Director, Nova College of Pharmacy, Lucknow congratulated the organizers and encouraged students to continue pursuing scientific innovation.
